

COURAGE.

The bear demonstrates courage in taking care of its young cubs by providing them with food, shelter and protection.

We are all faced with moments in our lives when we will be called upon to be courageous. Some examples include, like the bear, taking care of our families, standing up for our rights, defending our nation, battling an illness, and telling the truth when we have done something wrong.