Kelvin High School threat investigated and cleared

March 23, 2016 (Winnipeg, MB) – On Tuesday, March 22, Kelvin High School administration contacted Winnipeg Police Services about rumours of a threat to the school. WPS have investigated at the school and advised there is no actual threat to the school.

When reports come to our attention we take these matters seriously. While this threat turned out to be a rumour, the safety of our students is always our first priority.

Classes are continuing today as normally scheduled.
