

LOVE.

Love is about caring for yourself and for others. Love can be shown through the things we do for people and say to people. It is about caring, kindness and being there for others.

The Eagle represents love because eagles are loving parents and teachers to their children. They protect and guide them through life's lessons. This guides us as parents and teachers as well.