Winnipeg School Division to hold series of school community consultations

Nov. 20, 2014 (Winnipeg, MB) – The Winnipeg School Division (WSD) is developing its budget for the 2015/16 school year. It is holding a series of school community consultations Nov. 25, Dec. 2, 3 and 4, 2014. WSD residents and parents are encouraged to come out and meet the WSD Board of Trustees and provide feedback about programs and services currently offered in WSD schools.

“We’re at the first stage of planning for the 2015/16 school year which includes reviewing existing programs and services, and looking at new and innovative ways to provide high quality education to our constituents,” said Mark Wasyliw, WSD Board of Trustees Chair. “Feedback from people who live in the area and who have children attending WSD schools helps guide our decision making.”
