DMCI hosts “The Write Stuff”

April 19, 2016 (Winnipeg, MB) – Daniel McIntyre Collegiate Institute is holding “The Write Stuff” writers conference on Thursday, April 21. Media are invited to attend the keynote speaker presentation with David Robertson, bestselling graphic novelist and writer, starting at 9:30 a.m. at Calvary Temple, 440 Hargrave Street.

“This is a huge undertaking for the school with 160 DMCI students and neighbouring schools attending,” said Grade 11 Teacher Robyn Harrington, event organizer. “It’s an exciting opportunity for our students to hear from guest speakers in workshops about the day-to-day applications of writing and how that translates into real jobs.”

Twelve speakers will attend the event to workshop with the students with various small and large group activities planned.
