NOVEMBER 2014

Violent screaming Double trouble Riff Raffs bringing the hype to the Kelvin pairs costume contest.

Gambling on school grounds? Only pretend on Halloween day of course. Photo taken while he was showing off some cool shuffling tricks!

A clicker - Really good cosplay from The Last of Us.

Two Chains - Someone drop a beat and let's get some freestyles!

Nerds and greasers are never a good combo, except for a good photo! (Fun fact - They didn't know each other.)

Gumby and a nun, what more can I say?

Sailors wave high to the camera!

It's Dumbledore, rocking the stage with a 1st place in the singles costume contest!

Here we have Woody and Jessie, scoring 1st in the pairs costume contest!

First it's getting a win for the Kelvin group costume contest, and then it's straight to Comic Con 2014!

Shalom

It's the Day of the Dead.

It's your school president, Katniss Everdeen. (Armed - So you better stick to the rules.)

The facial expressions are just perfect for this costume. Now all they need is a liger and some tater tots!

Billionaire yacht club is off the seas and in our halls.

Two of our English teachers remake the American Gothic painting, by Grant Wood. What a classic!

FEAR FACTOR

Dressed in bright orange jumpers, you could not have missed these guys. Now where are the people dressed up as cops to send these guys to the office?

Same hair, jumper and shoes.

“Can I take your photo?” “Give us a minute!” (At the same time of course!)
