

THE KELVIN PAPERCLIP

THE UNDERGROUND YEARBOOK

PHOTOS TAKEN BY DJ Vaquilar

May / 2014 Issue

Editor In Chief : Hannah Lank

Teacher Advisors : Mr. Gregory & Ms. Osborne

Fictional card games underneath the stairs - a classic Kelvin scene.

If only those were water balloons.

The Cafeteria - Perfect place for friends, food and jumpstarting a career in magic.

Soccer action in the empty hallways, nothing out of the ordinary here.

What's more important: exiting from a fire drill quickly and calmly, or striking a pose?

Showing off some dance moves to the camera.

Fishing can be slow sometimes. Taken during a brief outdoor ed outing.

IB kids clearly working their hardest in history class.

Am I in the wrong neighbourhood?

Kelvin skateboarders are always ready for a photoshoot. - Got right beside his path for this shot!

Henna tattoos - Just take a look at the detail on that one!

Teacher left the room? Why not.

Grade nine Walkathon. Voila our newest generation of Kelvin Clippers.

Message from DJ : 2053 photos in just one month! this is a small part of a much larger collection, so expect more photo-only issues to come! Most of these photos were taken during my first semester D-slot spare, big thanks to Omar Elgazzar for walking around with me, helping me find interesting things to capture, and thanks to everybody who let me take their photo!!

THANKS FOR READING! Make sure to SHARE this copy with a friend if you support Kelvin Paperclip photo issues!
