Message from Administration

June marks a powerful moment in our school community. It's a time to reflect on ten months of growth, laughter, hard work, and discovery. Dreams came true this year. New ones were sparked - ready to be carried forward.

It's also a time to say farewell!

We say goodbye to our Grade 9 and Grade 8 classes. Some of these students began their journey with us in Nursery or Kindergarten. Others joined along the way. All of them are part of the Isaac Brock story. This farewell is especially meaningful. It marks the final year we celebrate a Grade 9 class. And it marks a milestone: our first cohort of Cree and Ojibwe language revitalization students are completing Grade 8.

Our English Grade 8 students also leave as part of a dynamic, diverse, and multicultural group - one that reflects everything Isaac Brock stands for.

This year, memories were made. Skills were gained. Knowledge was wrapped in laughter and purpose. What our students accomplished goes beyond numbers. It can't be captured in a percentage or grade indicator 1, 2, 3, or 4.

Together with families and our wider community, we helped shape a brighter future.

The students moving on to Grade 9 and 10 are thinkers, communicators, collaborators, and language keepers. They're stepping into the world ready to lead - with dreams to share and gifts to offer.

Our farewell is more than a goodbye. It's a reflection of our one-school vision - rooted in relationships with ourselves, with each other, with the land, and with the community we build together. Here, reconciliation is not just a concept. It's alive. It's growing, changing, and shaped by the needs of the students living it.

And as we say farewell, we also look ahead - with open arms and full hearts - to welcome our next group of Nursery and Kindergarten students in English, Cree, and Ojibwe. The future has never been brighter for our school community.
