Attendance/Absence from Class/Exams/Evaluations

Students are expected to notify the appropriate instructor(s) or the Educational Assistant on or before the same day before class regarding unavoidable absences, i.e. illness, family health or crisis, or in advance in the case of religious holidays. Students must notify instructors by email or phone before the start of class. See Academic Standards Policy A22.

A maximum of unexcused five absences will be allowed in this program.

Students missing three days consecutively will require a medical declaration and or a meeting with the Educational Assistant or Instructor.

Students who are absent for tests, mid-terms, or a final exam will be given a grade of (F) until other arrangements can be made.

A medical certificate may be requested for absences (due to illness). In other cases, a student may be asked to provide a written statement of the reason for the absence and to discuss the matter with the Educational Assistant or Instructor of the program who will then notify the Program Manager. In cases of unavoidable absences (extreme circumstances), it is the responsibility of the student to check with the appropriate instructor for work missed. Tests must be written, and assignments submitted on their set date. When extreme circumstances make this impossible, arrangements must be made with the appropriate instructor before tests can be written or marks will be forfeited.

A variety of class activities will be conducted throughout the course. These cannot be made up; therefore, your absence forfeits the opportunity to learn from these activities. In case of serious illness, accident, or a death in your social network, a physician's note and/or other documented evidence of your absence will be required. If you miss a class for any reason, it is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to call or make an appointment to see your instructor. Please do not wait until the next class period to find out what you need to accomplish to catch up.

- If you are going to be late or absent, it is the responsibility of the student to report to your subject instructor before the beginning of class.
- It is the responsibility of the student to make up the time missed and catch up on notes and assignments, for all late and absent periods.
- All missed tests with excused absences* may be pre-arranged with the Educational Assistant or Instructor or may be written in the final week of the program. Excused absences are at the discretion of the course instructor and Program Manager.

EXCUSED ABSENCES MAY INCLUDE

- Substantiated medical or family problems (Require Physicians Note).
- Circumstances beyond the student's control where such lateness or absences have been approved in advance by the instructor.
- Exceptional weather conditions.
- Family emergencies (e.g. funeral)
