Arts Integration Teacher

About Me

Hello I am Amanda Andrade! I am so excited to be joining Weston School as the Arts Integration Teacher. I'm returning from a joyful maternity leave, where I spent my days playing and creating with my two young boys.

The Arts

I believe the arts are powerful tools for expression, inquiry and connection. My teaching is deeply rooted in the land and guided by the voices and interests of students. Whether we're exploring rhythm, storytelling, movement, or mixed media, my goal is to create engaging opportunities for every student to find joy in learning and pride in creating.

Fun Facts

- Outside the classroom I love gardening, cooking, spending time in nature, reading and learning new things.
- I live with my husband, our two boys and our lovable dog, Moe.
- I love picture books and hope to write or illustrate one some day.
