S496498	Indigenous Book Expansion Funding for this project will provide William Whyte School the opportunity to start their home reading program in the early years. To foster a love of reading, children need to see themselves represented. The goal is to purchase books by Indigenous authors that feature Indigenous characters and Indigenous Ways of Knowing. As oral storytelling is integral to Indigenous culture, William Whyte School will purchase wordless books to honour this tradition. This will encourage families to tell stories in their own words and language, helping to reclaim their culture in the spirit of reconciliation. Funding supports home reading/book lending.	William Whyte Community Sc - Administrator - Teacher	students	$3,000
