The National Day of Truth and Reconciliation / Orange Shirt Day

As a school, we will be acknowledging The National Day for Truth and Reconciliation/Orange Shirt Day on Monday, Oct. 2. Students are encouraged to wear orange on this day. Indigenous staff and students are encouraged to wear their traditional clothing such as ribbon shirts/skirts, beadwork, and moccasins.

In the afternoon of Oct. 2, the school will gather for a short assembly and then be participating in an Every Child Matters Awareness Walk. The intent of this walk is to bring awareness to our community. Classes will be showcasing the knowledge they have learned about the meaning of the phrase, "EVERY CHILD MATTERS", over the last few weeks, by carrying or wearing visual representations, such as posters, images, etc., on the walk.
